some news that the men who permitted them salves to be drawn into the Fillmore delusion of 1886, whereby Fremont was defeated and Schman elected, are making all convenient hate to give in their adhesion to the Chicago nominations. We expected as much. The cartainty that Mr. Lincoln would be acceptable alike to the supporters of Bates and the friends of Mr. Seward, and that all men opposed to the further extension of Human Slavery would find in him a candidate whom they could work for and shout for, was that thing which impelled us to toil as we did for his now seen does not disappoint our expectations. The probabilities are that no Bell and Everet oral ticket will be run in this State; and that nine out of every ten of the Fillmore mer of 1856 will come up heartily, earnestly, hon-estly and patriotically to Henest Old Abe's der can embrace; that honesty that they pro-bundly respect; that firmness upon which they an repose; that love of country that will nove ful. As regards the question of a fusion of parties I am for it, if it can be effected upon a Republicate heats as the size of the fusion upon any other terms would be a mavise as it wester has any other terms would be a mavise as it wester be as more considered. Its effect would be to lose thereby the whole North, while the common enemy would certainly arry the entire South. The question is relation to mer is a very different one. There are good and patriotic men, and able statemen in the South whom I would cheerely support, if they stood upon Republican ground; but I am opposed to lowering the Republicans smadard by so much as a hair's breadth.

Monday has a rejuicing over the nomination of Lincoln, faciling con diesen that Pennaylwania can be carried for him. Everybody was pleased and in high spirits over the harmonicous result for the Convention. We learn that there will be no third party strength my where outside of Philladelphis, and nor much there.

— The nomination of Lincoln and Ramiin was saluted by 100 guns at Kenne, N. H. fired amid the enthusiasm of the people. A copious and long withind for rain followed upon the abnouncement of the nomination, literally making the earth to reloice. Our correspondent at Keene says that the State is good for 6,000 majority for the Chisago nominees. Hamiin. Masers. Editors - To may not be uninteresting to your readers to know how the nomination of "Old Ann" was received herealouts. For some months past, it has been the settled conviction of a large majority of our citizens that there was no doubt of Seward's nomination. However much the friends of Liscoix might desire his nomination, they could not asking the missives that his prospects were at all flastifing. For some days previous to the somination, street cancusing and discussions had ceased, and all were brasinfessly awaiting the action of the Chicago Convention. When the seamer arrived the crowd collected on the levee in a kind of matter of course way to learn the news. When, however, it was announced from her guard that Lixcoix had received the nomination, the excitement was intense. The news of the nomination spread through out city like wild fire. It inspired every Republican with fresh zeal, and struck terror to the heart of every Douglasite. The "Young "Republican" was brought out, and as it peaks of ore the young which are but the preside of what will be after the election in Novemberset, Although we are satisfied with things as far, yet we do not intend to six quietly down and await the result, but will work ardeatly until the campaign is finally closed, and "However Old Ann." Alt. Wilson moved the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That slavery is against natural rights, and can only exist when it is upheld by local and municipal law, and that the Constitution neither creates nor establishes, nor authorizes Gougrass to create or establish, slavery, or guarantees the right to any persons to take jitt or hold slaves in a Terrisery; and that slavery being wrong in itself, and prejudicial to the rights of freemen and the interests of labor, it is the daty of Congress to prevent its extension into the Territories of the United States.

This substitute was rejected—year 9, may a $8.

The resolution was then adopted by yeas 33, nays 19.

The seventh resolution, relating to the fugitive slave law, was taken up.

Mr. Ten Eyek said he should vote for the resolution.

The question was then taken on Mr. Brown's meadment that intervention was now needed, and lost, year 5, mee 45.

Mr. Collamor offered an amendment to Mr. Dlingman's amendment, to the effect that no intervention by Congress in the Territories was would be required. The amendment was ime prove that the judicial and execute ad-thority de not possess means to ensure ad-quate protection to committational rights in a territory, and a territorial government about the provide the measury remedier others.
